Presenters: -Kelly Scalise, Attorney & Chairperson, FBA Admiralty Law Section
-Charles D. Naylor, Attorney

Moderator: -Douglas T. Moore, Attorney & Chairperson, HSBA Admiralty Law Section

Summary: This 1 credit CLE panel is designed to provide practical skills for attorneys who work with Admiralty and/or Maritime related claims. The goal is to educate attorneys on some of the basics relating to availability of punitive damages, especially focusing on the differences between the Fifth and Ninth Circuits. The goal is that attorneys will walk away from this CLE event able to advise clients on the availability of punitive damages in the different jurisdictions, as well as understand the implications of newly published Court Opinions.

This CLE Event is presented by the HSBA Admiralty Law Section and co-sponsored by HSBA.

- HSBA Admiralty Law Section Member $15 for live in person OR webcast (1 CLE Credit)
- HSBA Member $35 for live in person OR webcast (1 CLE Credit)
- HSBA Non-Member $45 live in Person (1 CLE Credit)
- HSBA Non-Member $35 live webcast (No CLE Credit)
- Law Students FREE (No CLE Credit)
