A 2024 Legislative Update for the Legal Community

During the 2024 legislative session, several historic bills were passed by the legislature including the largest income tax break in State history, creation of a state fire Marshall, granting the counties the authority to regulate short term vacation rentals, and for the first time in decades amending the state zoning laws to allow for additional ADU's to be built on single family homes.

The legislature also approved the supplemental budget for operating and capital improvement projects for the Hawaii State Judiciary, and significant legislation in the areas of mental health, affordable housing, and product labeling.

Please join HSBA members Scott Saiki, the Speaker of the State House of Representatives, and Karl Rhoads, the Chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee as they provide an overview of significant measures impacting the practice of law after the 2024 legislative session.
