

Navigating the Rules: Who is the Client?

This seminar will provide an overview of the Model Rules and the Hawaii Rules of Professional Conduct relating to attorneys and their ethical duties to their clients. The seminar will cover representation issues for corporations, associations, and government entities. It will cover representational issues arising in the insurance defense and third party-litigation funding contexts. Finally, it will provide some best practices for the day to day issues which can challenge practicing attorneys.
