OVERVIEW

For over 30 years, the HAWAII BAR JOURNAL has been bringing Hawaii's legal professionals news, views, and thought-provoking articles. Advertisers looking to reach affluent, well-educated business professionals will find an advertising campaign in the HAWAII BAR JOURNAL an excellent investment. The practice of law involves a constantly changing body of laws, court rules and legal precedents. This is what makes the BAR JOURNAL such essential reading (25.5 min. ave.) for every attorney. As the official publication of the HAWAII STATE BAR ASSOCIATION, the BAR JOURNAL serves as the major link between the association and its 7,300 + members. The magazine is mailed directly to every attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Hawaii. When comparing apples with apples, the Bar Journal's cost per thousand rate is nearly $\frac{1}{3}$ of other Hawaii business magazines or journals. Simply put, it is the most cost effective way to reach the affluent business professional.
