1990 AMENDMENTS COMMENTS: Clarifying amendments were made to the first paragraph. A requirement for filing attorney registrations was added in order to enable the Bar to keep track of the inactive members carried on its rolls. The Committee Comment was edited to remove references to deletions made in the prior amendments.

(d) Law Student Members. Students enrolled in the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawaii and any other ABA-accredited law school shall be eligible to be admitted to law student affiliate membership upon payment of such dues as the Board of Directors shall determine.

(e) Affiliate Members. Lawyers licensed and in good standing in other States shall be entitled to become affiliate members of the Hawaii State Bar Association upon payment of such dues as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Affiliate members shall not be entitled to practice law in this State or to vote or hold office in the Bar Association, but shall be entitled to such other privileges as the Board shall prescribe from time to time. Affiliate members shall not advertise or hold themselves out as members of the Hawaii Bar, nor shall they use or knowingly permit the use of their affiliate membership status in any directory or law list for the purpose of soliciting or obtaining business or financial advantage. Violation of this rule by an affiliate member shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of such member's affiliate membership status.

COMMITTEE COMMENT: The two categories of "Law Student" and "Affiliate" membership are intended for law students and for lawyers from other States who want to establish some relationship with the Hawaii Bar without being admitted to practice here. It confers no privileges of practice, voting or holding office. The addition of a provision for Affiliate members, although unusual, was added at the suggestion of the Bar Association to provide for greater breadth of resources among the Bar membership, as well as an additional source of revenue. The prohibition on the use of affiliate membership status in advertising, directories or for soliciting business is designed to guard against improper use of the affiliate status to deceive or mislead the public.
